

Getting to know people in the know.

Monday May 7, at 7 pm

Want to get a new take on Richard Nixon? Come hear Jack Farrell, newsman, Washington insider and historian, talk about his new book.

Wednesday May 23, at 7 pm

If you love movies, you never miss Ann Hornaday's reviews. She knows what's new in the theaters and what's coming from international film festivals.

Thursday May 10, at 7 pm

Why is it so hard to fix immigration? Come learn from someone with decades of experience, Doris Meissner.

Friday June 1, at 7 pm

Best-selling author Judith Viorst's books appeal to children and adults alike.

Tuesday May 15, at 7 pm

Confused about Net Neutrality? Tom Wheeler, former chair of the FCC, can explain it to you.

Saturday June 2, at 7 pm

Dan Balz is the gold standard for incisive, must-read political articles for The Washington Post.

Wednesday May 16, at 7 pm

Molly Smith is a theater pioneer who wanted to take Arena Stage national--and did.

Monday June 4, at 7 pm

Award-winning restaurateur Ris Lacoste built RIS featuring simple but savory food.

Thursday May 17, at 7 pm

John Kelly, Washington Post local columnist and blogger, reveals the real-life moments that make Washington special.

Thursday June 28, at 7 pm

Timpanist Jauvon Gilliam sets the beat at the NSO.

Tuesday May 22, at 7 pm

Former George Bush ethicist Richard Painter is a familiar gravelly voice on cable news, critiquing ethical conflicts today.

CelebSalons

For more information: 202-436-5252
www.dupontcirclevillage.net